A Celebration of the 2nd Sunday of Easter

The United Methodist Church has a new vision statement: The UM Church forms disciples of Jesus Christ who, empowered by the Holy Spirit, love boldly, serve joyfully, and lead courageously in local communities and worldwide connections. Our mission remains “To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world”.

Centering Words

Sunday evening:

*The doors where the disciples were, were shut tight
because of fear...*

Proclamation

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Prelude

The Love of God

arr. Shackley

Call to Worship

Liturgist, Dawn Sundquist

While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. While they were still cowering in fear, Christ announced peace to his disciples and sent them as the God had sent them in the power of the Holy Spirit. Hallelujah! Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Christ announces peace to us and sends us, in our fear and despite our sins, as agents of forgiveness, healing, and peace. The resurrection awakens us to ministry. Hallelujah! Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

And so, the peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

Hallelujah! Christ is risen

He is risen indeed!

+Opening Hymn

Alleluia, Alleluia

No. 162

Opening Prayer

Author of faith, to you we lift our weary, longing eyes. Our fear would close us down to your love and your call on our lives. Even now, send your Spirit among us. Break into our shut-up hearts, unparalyze our fear-filled minds, and unclasp our clenched hands, that we may hear your words of life and truly live. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Choral Anthem I Know that My Redeemer Lives arr. Harmon

I know that my Redeemer lives: glory, hallelujah! What joy and peace this sentence gives: glory, hallelujah! Shout on, pray on, we're gaining ground: glory, hallelujah! The dead's alive, the lost is found: glory, hallelujah!

He lives to bless me with his love: glory, hallelujah! He lives to plead for me above: glory, hallelujah! He lives, my hungry soul to feed: glory, hallelujah! He lives to help in time of need: glory, hallelujah!

He lives, all glory to his name: glory, hallelujah! He lives, my savior still the same: glory, hallelujah! What joy the blest assurance gives: glory, hallelujah! I know that my Redeemer lives: glory, hallelujah!

Awakening...to Ministry

Morning Prayer

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Christ is risen, indeed. Alleluia!

Let us pray with and for the church and the world, saying, “Lord, have mercy.” With all who are afraid this day because of health, or lack of resources, or threats to their lives or the lives of those they love, we stretch our hands to you:

Lord, have mercy.

With all who need you to enter their situation at this moment and speak "Peace," we stretch our hands to you:

Lord, have mercy.

With all who have been wounded by others in this world, justly or unjustly, we stretch our hands to you:

Lord, have mercy.

With all who rejoice in your resurrection, and with all who mourn those who have died, we stretch our hands to you:

Lord, have mercy.

For all who bring peace or work for peace and justice in the world, we stretch our hands to you:

Lord, have mercy.

With all whom you have sent into the world, in every land and nation, we stretch our hands to you:

Lord, have mercy.

Breathe afresh on us, that we may receive of the Holy Spirit as we stretch our hands to you.

Thanks be to you, O God. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PEACE!

Prayer Candles—Lighting candles is a devotional practice in which many millions of Christians the world over have found inspiration. Everyone is encouraged to light a candle and offer a prayer as we gather for worship. The candle will not be a substitute for the prayer of your heart, but an accompaniment. They are located to the left of the pulpit.
